Utah Partners for Conservation & Development (UPCD)
Field Tour of WRI Projects

Thursday September 16, 2021 9:30am – 3:30pm

Join your peers outdoors on a guided tour of forest management and stream restoration projects. You will learn about fire management and low-tech stream restoration techniques, project outcomes, and preliminary results from ecological research. Discussion and networking opportunities will be provided. Highlighted guides include Jessica Kirby, Public Lands Manager at Summit County; Marshall Wolf, Ph.D. Candidate at Utah State University; and many more!

You are welcome to join for a partial or full trip. Dress for the weather and walking off-trail. We will remain outdoors the entire day, including lunch.

Important! Parking at sites is limited. Please consider setting up carpools with your existing networks. Adhering to covid safety measures is a must.
